STOCKS DULL

Sugar a Leader in the Market Helps Prices.

Extreme dulness was the rule on th stock market to-day.

The opening prices, however, showed some improvements, the gains extend ing to 3-4 per cent. in Metropolitan Street Railway, and 1 per cent. in Lake

Sugar and Southern Pacific gained 1 and 5-8 per cent. respectively. The latter was in demand and 5,000 shares vere sold simultaneously at 35 1-4 down were off 1-4 to 1-2 per cent.

Toward the end of the first hour there was a well distributed demand for railroad stocks and they became buoyant, with Pennsylvania and New York Central benefiting chiefly.

A rise to above 116 in St. Paul steadled the market for a time. Per-28 eventually drove the price below that level and the other Pacifics were affected in sympathy. New Jersey Central rose 2 points, causing the list to rise slowly at midday. Bonds were dull and firm.

Hears put out short lines during the final, hour and forced prices back to or below last night's closing level. The closing was quite active and weak and prices were lower on the day throughout.

and prices were lower on the day throughout. The total sales of stocks to-day were 238 182 shares and of bonds $1,798,000.

WALL STREET EDITORS HELD FOR BLACKMAIL.

Charged with Their Lawyer with Trying to Obtain $1,500 from Banker Morgan for Suppressing a Scurrilous Article-Unable to Obtain Bonds.

Two men connected with a financial newspaper called the Wall Street Press and a lawyer were charged in the Centre Street Police Court this morning with attempting to blackmail C. W. Morgan, a well-known banker at 71 Broadway. The men are John Evans, of 47 West Sixty-third street, manager of the Wall Street Press; Ferdinand G. Gardiner, of the same address, associated with Evans in the publication of the paper, and Leonard Watson, a lawyer, of 70 Washington place.

A few days ago Gardiner went to the office of Mr. Morgan and secured a private interview with him. Gardiner had with him a proof of an article making a Walked Into a Trap.

Mr. Morgan was astounded and wanted to know the reason of the attack. Gardiner then informed him-147 that the article would be suppressed on the the payment of a certain sum. Mr. 1198 Morgan seemingly acquiesced and told 214 the man to call again yesterday. 338 At the appointed time Evans and 1198 Gardiner called on the broker. In the Gardiner called on the broker. In the meantime Mr. Morgan had notified Chief of Detectives McClusky, and Detective Sergts. Gargan and Kiernan were de-tailed on the case. They had secured the services of a stenographer and the three secreted themselves in Mr. Mor gan's office.

When Evans and Gardiner entered the office they proceeded directly to business. Evans said that for a consideration of $1.50 the article would be kept out of the paper. Mr. Morgan was invalidated to have it suppressed for a less sum and haggled with them over the price until he got both men to fully price until he got both men commit themselves.

While the name of the writer is withield from publication, it was learned that he is a New Yorker and lived on the east side prior to his enlistment. He writes that since he enlisted in the army his young wife has been arrested and sentenced to serve a term in the House of Refuge for Women at Hudson. The letter tells a most pitiful story. It says that the writer is recovering from fever contracted in fighting for his country, and he is at a military hos pital at Manila. He says he has jus received information concerning the misfortune that has befallen his wife.

When he enlisted he left his wife with boy of six years. She made the ac Rev.
